Acrylics Workshop/Classes with Karin Richter

MATERIALS LIST

Welcome to my acrylics workshop/class. Please bring to class whatever you are used to in this medium but you may want to have the following on hand:

Acrylic Paints (any brand you like, the best being Golden)* buy Grumbacher acrylic paints, they are economical and very good!

Lemon Yellow
Cadmium yellow deep
Cadmium Red Light
Alizarin Crimson
Phthalo Blue
Ultramarine Blue
Burnt Sienna
Transparent Red Oxide (only in Golden and Graham)
Dioxazine Purple
Titanium White
Black

Acrylic Matte Medium (optional)

Canvas Boards, Stretched Canvas or
Canvas Paper or Acrylic Paper (250lbs.) (if just starting out)

Old cotton rags
Bristle brushes for larger areas
Inexpensive synthetic watercolour brushes in assorted sizes
Large water containers

Paper Palette or butcher tray (old ceramic plates or paper plates work as well)

If you are new to this medium, keep your receipts in case you have to return or exchange supplies. For questions contact me at karinrichter@shaw.ca.

I look forward to painting with you!
