

Kathy Aldous-Schleindl lives in Edmonton, Alberta and is an Artist and Art Instructor. She is currently a Nature Sketch Educator for the Robert Bateman Foundation, and an Instructor for both the Art Gallery of St. Albert and Gallery@501. She has been teaching for the past 12 years, previously in Calgary, at places such as at North Mount Pleasant Arts Centre, Wildflower Arts Centre, and several community centres and schools throughout the city. She has taught a variety of classes to people from ages three to adult, and is currently a member of the Canadian Network for Arts & Learning.

She has also had the opportunity to facilitate community art workshops and projects for the Calgary Islamic school, Almadina Charter School, Studio C, Antyx Community Arts, The Kerby Centre; and volunteered for eight months in 2017/18 at Inner City Arts in Los Angeles. While in LA, she became a member of the Society of Illustrators of Los Angeles and continues now as an International member.

Kathy's own practice includes working in acrylics, watercolours, oils, and fabric and she holds a Bachelor of Design degree from the Emily Carr University of Art & Design, Vancouver. For examples of her work please check out her website: kasdesign.org
