CREATING EXQUISITE TINY TREASURES!

With Judy Leila Schafers

In this workshop we will discuss how to think small when it comes to painting and how to create a life like masterpiece filled with light and depth within a small space.

Various types of supports, supplies, tools, mediums & framing/presentation options will be covered.

There will be demonstrations offered on painting and framing methods throughout the day, personal coaching, time to help you complete your own project(s) and access to an informative web page. No need to take notes.

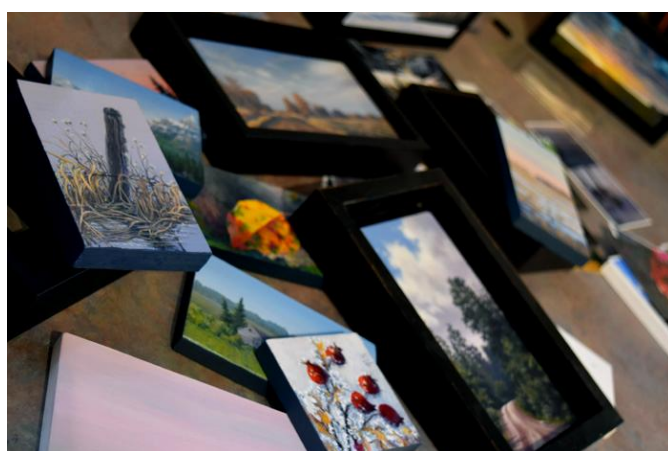

In progress and completed samples will be available to view.

It is preferred that participants use acrylic paints for this class. All levels of experience and painting styles are welcome.
