PLEIN AIR WORKSHOP at WOODBRIDGE PARK with Karen Haines

Do you like to be outdoors? Do you like a challenge? If you're a studio painter, do you want to improve your painting skills? Painting En Plein Air is a critical method of learning to paint that the masters have used for a long time – it works! You develop the ability to see and remember what things look like and how to translate that onto your surface. Come join us for a fun, exciting plein air experience just steps from the Red Barn!

We will begin with a brief discussion and a partial demo followed by your own paintings coming to life. There will be lots of guidance and notes provided to help you continue your practice afterwards. All levels of experience and painting styles are welcome
