

RYAN KURYLO
FINE ARTIST

BIOGRAPHY

Ryan Kurylo is an Albertan visual artist specializing in portraiture and commemorative sculpture. Ryan honed his skills through international art workshops and working under some of the world's best professionals. Inspired by public sculpture, he embarked on a journey to understand and share the journey of creation and self improvement through art. Bringing global experience to his local community, Ryan is a cultural bridge, fostering creativity, healing and understanding. His insightful and experiential workshops invite creatives of all level of experience to embark on their own explorations, reflecting the power of art to connect us all.