

Margaret Klappstein

Margaret paints with passion and tries to represent different moods in her paintings.

Margaret creates her works in acrylic, watercolor, oils, paste, alcohol ink and mixed media. Her creations capture a sense of mood, atmosphere and special moments. Margaret has taken art workshops through the University of Alberta, U Of A Extension, Susan Woolgar, Jane Ronanishco, Heather Pant, Carol Nelson, David Langevin, Linda Kemp, Ingrid Christiansen, Keith Bond, Tom Lynch, Xin Yu Zheng, Mike Svob, Ron Ranson, Brent Laycock, Arleta Pech, Jack Reid, Jerry Heine, Charles Spratt, Brian Atyeo, Jim Adrain, Arne Westerman, David Keiller, Eileen Rocher-Sutton, Willie Wong and Gene Prokop.

Currently a member of the Art Society of Strthcona and FCAEdmonton chapter. Two of Margaret's paintings are a part of the Strathcona County Permanent Collection. She received a Pride of Strathcona Award in 2002. She received 1st Honorable Mention at the Spring 2023 FCA Show at the NOA Gallery in Bonnie Doone Mall. Margaret also teaches workshops and art classes for the Art Society of Strathcona County.